PRIVACY ACT CONSENT AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

AU-PC-3.1

A. IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This Part sets out important information about how De Lage Landen Pty Limited ABN: 20 101 692 040 ("DLL") will use and disclose the information you have provided to DLL in connection with the Application. The disclosures, consents and acknowledgments in this form also apply to any other personal information DLL collects or has collected from you at any time in connection with an Application or the finance (if granted).

DLL's website (www.dllgroup.com/au/en-au/privacy-statement) includes important information about credit reporting and DLL's privacy policy and credit reporting policy. They contain information on DLL's management of your personal information and credit-related personal information, how you may access or seek to correct such information held by DLL, how you may complain about a breach of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), Australian Privacy Principles or the Privacy (Credit Reporting) Code 2014, how DLL will deal with your complaint and details of the credit reporting bodies to which DLL may disclose your credit information. You may request a hard copy of those information by contacting DLL.

The personal information you provide is collected by DLL for the purposes of assessing Applications, complying with DLL's obligations under any applicable legislation including the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth) and the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth) and any rules and regulations made under those Acts and, if DLL accepts an Application, providing and administering the finance. DLL also collects your information for the purpose of providing you with information that may be of interest to you and about other products and services offered by DLL, its related entities or selected third party providers (in which case DLL may disclose your information to those companies). If you do not agree to DLL using your information for direct marketing purposes, please contact DLL. DLL may also disclose your personal information to: organisations to whom DLL outsources its mailing, financial processing, information technology, data storage and other functions which assist DLL in providing you with financial services (eg, DLL's valuers and solicitors); the insurers of the credit or equipment financed; State and Federal Government Authorities (eg, Office of State Revenue, ASIC); the intermediary who made the referral to DLL (DLL may pay commission from its own funds to the intermediary for making the referral); any entity for which DLL may be acting as agent; the manufacturer(s) of the financed equipment, its distributors and its authorised dealers; the persons referred to in paragraphs 1-7 below; any one you authorise. DLL may disclose your personal information (including credit-related personal information) to overseas recipients for processing Applications, administering finance and other purposes as set out in its privacy policy.

You are required to advise any individuals named in connection with any Application that their personal data may be disclosed to us for the purposes set out above. If you do not give to DLL all of the information as required in an Application, DLL may refuse to consider the Application or be unable to administer the finance (if granted).

B. PRIVACY ACT CONSENT AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

In connection with any Application and subsequent finance (if granted), you agree that DLL may:

1. Give information about you to a credit reporting body to allow that credit reporting body to create or maintain a database of credit information, credit eligibility information and/or personal information containing information about you. This information may include (where applicable): identity particulars (eg, your name, address, date of birth); the fact that you have applied for credit and the amount; the fact that DLL is a credit provider to you; payments which are overdue more than 60 days and for which collection action has commenced; cheques drawn by you for more than $100 which have been dishonoured more than once; advice that payments are no longer overdue; in specified circumstances, that in DLL's opinion you have committed a serious credit infringement; that the credit provided to you by DLL has been repaid.
2. Use the information for identity verification purposes with the Commonwealth Government's Document Verification Service, which will be subject to an information match request in relation to relevant Official Record Holder information. Information match requests, information match results and other information match data and DLL's access to and use of the Document Verification Service may involve use of third party systems and services.
3. Give to and seek from your accountant, any credit providers or any credit reporting body any information about your credit arrangements including information contained in and with an Application and any other information about your credit worthiness, credit standing, credit history or credit capacity ("Credit Arrangements Information"). You understand that this information may be used for the following purposes: to assess any Application; to assist you to avoid defaulting on your credit obligations; to notify and exchange information with other credit providers or any collection agent of DLL if you are in default; to assess your credit worthiness; to assess whether to accept you as a guarantor of credit applied for (if applicable).
4. Get reports from a credit reporting body or other business that provides information about credit worthiness to enable DLL to assess any Application, collect overdue payments and assess whether to accept you as a Guarantor (if applicable). These reports may contain: personal information about you in relation to any Application; personal credit information and commercial credit information about you in relation to any Application; information about your commercial activities or credit worthiness; other information in relation to your commercial credit activities.
5. Give Credit Arrangements Information to and obtain Credit Arrangements Information from: any of the other Customers, associated individuals and entities; any guarantor or prospective guarantor of any obligations to DLL under an Application at any time; any person who has provided, provides or is considering providing financial accommodation to you or who has taken or may take any form of security from you including other related entities of DLL and any entity for which DLL may be acting as agent; any registered trade insurer providing insurance to DLL, the persons and entities referred to in Part A; and any legal or financial adviser of a person referred to in this paragraph.
6. Request a registered trade insurer to obtain information about you from a credit reporting body to assess whether to provide trade insurance to DLL in relation to an Application.
7. Disclose, verify, use and obtain your personal information as set out in Parts A and B. You acknowledge that, if DLL accepts an Application, then this Privacy Act Consent and Acknowledgment will remain in force until the full amount owing by you to DLL, companies related to DLL or their successors or permitted assigns under any facility is repaid and all related accounts are closed.
